Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

The Society of Corbey Court and Phi Delta Phi has elected the following honorary members:

Hon. Henry Wade Rogers, LL.D., Dean of the Yale Law School, and Professor of Equity and Corporations.
Hon. Frederick Palmer Hall, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Errors of Conecticut.
Hon. Simeon Eben Baldwin, Former Chief Justice of Supreme Court of Errors. Professor of American Constitutional and Private International Law.

The society also annonces the following elections:

Thomas Francis McGrath, 1910, of Waterbury, Conn.
Charles Williams Byrnes, 1910, of San Rafael, Cal.
Bernard Francis McLain, Jr., 1911, of Elizabeth, N. J.
Andrew Price, 1911, of Seattle, Wash.
John Frederick Baker, 1912, of New Haven, Conn.
Alexander Wellington Creedon, 1912, of Hartford, Conn.
Robert Bacon English, 1912, of Hartford, Conn.
Roger Bernard Faherty, 1912, of Chicago, Ill.
Harold Paten Small, 1912, of New London, Conn.
Paul Webb, 1912, of Hamden, Conn.

The recent debate between the teams representing the Wayland and Kent Debating Clubs resulted in a victory for the Wayland team, which was composed of the following men:

Barney Larkey, 1911, of Newark, N. J.
Leonard Osborn Ryan, 1912, of Middletown, Conn.
Clement Richardson Wood, 1911, of Birmingham, Ala.

The make-up of the Kent Club team was:

Samuel Reed Dighton, 1911, of Monticello, Ill.
Soren Edward Hannestead, 1911, of Mabcawoo, Hawaii.
Robert Clarence Walden, 1910, of Columbus, Ohio.

A silver cup was presented to the best speaker from each club. The Wayland cup was awarded to Barney Larkey. The Kent cup was awarded to Samuel Reed Dighton.

On February 26 the Hon. Guy C. H. Corliss, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Dakota, and also formerly Dean of the Law Department of the University of North Dakota, lectured in Hendrie Hall on "A Lawyer's Interpretation of Macbeth."

'89—Edward G. Buckland, in addition to his regular duties as vice-president, has been appointed assistant to the president of the N. Y., N. H. & H. Railroad Company, with headquarters again at New Haven.

'90 and '97—Walter A. De Camp and Dudley V. Sutphin announce that they have formed a partnership for the practice of law under the firm name of De Camp & Sutphin, with offices in the Traction Building, Cincinnati, O.

'91—George E. Hill was last week elected president of the Connecticut Bar Association. After graduating from College Mr. Hill taught for two years at his home in Stamford, Conn., before he entered the Law School. On receiving his LL.B. he at once began the practice of law in Bridgeport, Conn., and in 1893 became a member of the firm of Perry, Perry & Hill; he later formed the partnership of Hall & Hill, and on the death of Mr. Hall he formed a partnership with William B. Boardman, '93, under the firm name of Hill & Boardman, with which firm he is now connected. In 1894 he was appointed Health Officer for Fairfield County, and in 1903 he was Republican (defeated) candidate for Mayor of Bridgeport. He was for four years a Police Commissioner of Bridgeport, and for several years has been a member of the State Board of Accountancy. He is president of the Bar Association of Bridgeport.

'96—Harvey S. Burrowes on February 1 became connected with the George M. Murrell Planting and Manufacturing Co. of Bayou Goula, La., as assistant general manager of sugar plantations and factory.

'97—Hon. Arthur A. Wilder, First Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Hawaii, has resigned from that office after having served one year of his second term, to become a member of the law firm of Thompson, Clemons & Wilder, with offices at 3-11 Campbell Block, Honolulu. The second member of the firm is Charles Clemons, ex-'98, who for some time has been associated with F. E. Thompson, of Honolulu, under the firm name of Thompson & Clemons, to which the new firm is successor.

Ex '98—Charles Clemons, for the past five years associated in the practice of law with F. E. Thompson, of Honolulu, under the firm name of Thompson & Clemons, is a member of the successor firm of Thompson, Clemons & Wilder, of which Hon. A. A. Wilder, '97, late Associate Justice of the Hawaiian Supreme Court, is a member.

'99—Albert F. Judd is associated in the practice of law with Hon. Alexander Lindsay, late Judge of the First Circuit Court of Hawaii, under the firm name of Judd & Lindsay, successors to Judd, Mott-Smith & Hemenway, which was dissolved in 1907 on the appointment of Mr. E. A. Mott-Smith to the office of Secretary of the Territory of Hawaii and of Mr. C. R. Hemenway, Yale College, '97, to the office of Attorney-General of Hawaii, in the Cabinet of Governor W. F. Frear, '90. The offices of the firm are in the Judd Building, Honolulu.

'04—William T. Kelleher has removed his law office to Room 856, 100 William Street, New York City.

'05—Thomas W. Connolly is stopping for a short time at Shepheard's Inn, Cairo. From there he will return to America, by way of England, arriving in New York about March 15.

'08—Harold B. Jamison, formerly law officer in the Third District of the Federal Forest Service at Albuquerque, N. M., left the Government service on February 1 and entered the private practice of law with Neil B. Field of Albuquerque.

'08—A daughter was born on January 20 to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Angell, of Seattle, Wash. She has been named Louise Carroll Angell.

'09—J. F. Anderson, who has been in the Northwest and on the Pacific Coast since leaving college, has opened a law office at 915 Commerce Building, Kansas City, Mo.

'09—Alfred W. Andrews is in the liability department of the Aetna Life Insurance Company, at the company's New York branch, 46 Cedar Street, New York City.

'09—Frederick A. Shaffer is practicing law at Globe, Ariz., where his address is Box 884.

Among the men recently elected members of the Yale Club were the following from the School: To non-resident membership; Roger D. Hill, '06; William B. McCarthy, '02, Milford, Conn.